

Japanese Garden at Cowden Lecture and Workshop Weekend

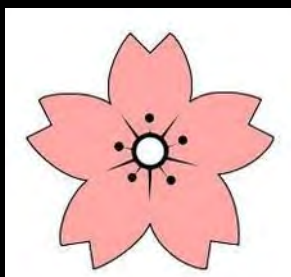

Sat 31st August (10.30—16.00) £50 pp

Lecture program on Japanese arts (calligraphy & Tea Ceremony) and relationship to Japanese garden design.

Sun 1st Sept (10.30—16.30) £75 pp

Practical workshops on Japanese garden design and construction.

Tickets & information
www.cowdengarden.com

Lecture Programme

Saturday 31st August

10.30-12.00 Sumi painting, Japanese calligraphy and the relationship to Japanese gardens. Demo & lecture by Koshu

12.00—13.30 Lunch & opportunity to walk round the garden

13.30—14.30 Cowden Japanese Garden Restoration. Lecture by Professor Masao Fukuhara

14.15—16.00 Tea Ceremony demonstration and informal talk by members of the Japanese Garden Restoration Team

Ticket price £50pp which includes: garden entry, full day lecture programme and demonstrations, light lunch, tea & coffee available throughout the day.

The event & lunch takes place in an unheated marquee, please dress appropriately.

Practical Workshop Programme

Sunday 1st Sept

10.30—16.30

Japanese garden design workshop. Lecture and drawing exercises by Professor Fukuhara (2 hours)

Japanese Garden construction workshop. Talk & walk looking at elements of garden building at Cowden. Followed by a hands on session building a bamboo fence. Led by Junya Matsukawa & Daijiro Mizuno (2 hours)

Garden tour and discussion on Japanese garden maintenance. Led by Kate White (1 hour)

Ticket price £75pp which includes:

garden entry, full day workshop program with all materials, light lunch, tea & coffee available throughout the day.

This program involves practical elements and walking on uneven paths.

Event location:

Cowden Japanese Garden,
Upper Hillfoot Road, Dollar,
Clackmannanshire, FK14 7PL

The garden brown signed from A91, and involves a half mile drive on a single track road.

For more information please see www.cowdengarden.com